International Cross-Comparison Course Crown Condition (Central and Northern Europe)

3 – 6 June 2019, Chorin, Germany

The Thünen Institute of Forest Ecosystems, Federal Research Institute for Rural Areas, Forestry and Fisheries, and the Eberswalde Forestry State Center of Excellence (LFE) are pleased to invite you to the International Cross-Comparison Course Crown Condition for Central and Northern Europe. The course takes place in the Schorfheide-Chorin Biosphere Reserve northeast of Berlin. The Schorfheide forest is one of the largest cohesive woodlands in Germany.

As hotel reservations have to be done quickly, we kindly ask you to please make your reservation under the keyword "ICP" until 7 March 2019. For further information, please refer to the following pages.

We will provide you with more information, incl. a detailed schedule, at the beginning of March. The conference fee will be around EUR 80.

Any comments are welcome and a short presentation with more information will be given at the upcoming Expert Panel Meeting in Brüssel.

We are looking forward to meeting you!
